

Symposium in Memory of Professor Gilbert Stork
Columbia University – October 20, 2018
8:45 – 5:30

Scientific Symposium		8:45 – 5:30	309 Havemeyer Hall
8:00	Badge Pickup and Coffee
	Speaker	Affiliation	Title
8:45	Prof. Colin Nuckolls	Columbia University	Welcome and Opening Remarks
9:00	Dr. Frances Hoffman and Prof. W. Clark Still	Columbia University	Memories of Gilbert Stork
9:30	Prof. Rick Danheiser	MIT	Pericyclic Reactions for Organic Synthesis
10:00	Dr. Michael Sofia	Arbutus Biopharma	Viral Hepatitis: The Search for a Cure
10:30	Coffee Break
11:00	Prof. Kathy Parker	Stony Brook University	Think, then go to the literature, then think some more
11:30	Dr. Scott Biller	Agios Pharmaceuticals	IDH Inhibitors: from the Lab to the Clinic
12:00	Prof. Eiichi Nakamura	University of Tokyo	A Journey from Organic Synthesis to Electron Microscopy
12:30	Lunch
1:30	Group Photo	Steps of Low Library
1:45	Prof. Daniel Kahne	Harvard University	Molecular machines that make membranes
2:15	Dr. Julian Adams	Gamida Cell, Ltd.	The Discovery of Velcade to Treat Multiple Myeloma
2:45	Prof. Michael Jung	UCLA	Drug Discovery in Academia: Success Stories
3:15	Coffee Break
3:45	Prof. Takayuki Doi	Tohoku University	Natural Product Synthesis, Biological Activity, and 3D Structure
4:15	Prof. Varinder Aggarwal	University of Bristol	Synthesis in a Boron World
4:45	Prof. Paul Wender	Stanford University	To A Unique Scientist And Mentor, Progress Toward Aids Eradication, Alzheimer's Treatment And Cancer Immunotherapy
5:15	Closing Comments
Reception		5:30 – 6:30	Faculty House
Dinner		6:30 – 9:30	Faculty House

For additional information and registration, please visit the symposium website:

<https://storksymposium2018.org>